Medical Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Western Illinois Medical and Surgical Society was held at Grafton, Friday, August 6th, 1897. The forenoon was devoted to the usual business of the society.
A paper was read by Dr. Chapman, of White Hall, which was followed by a discussion. The members were most hospitably entertained by Dr. J. Tidball, resident physician. In the afternoon an adjourned meeting was held on Dr. Haskell's elegant launch.
Onatoga, then followed a delightful excursion on the fleet little craft.
Those on board were Drs. Haskell and Yerkes, of Alton; Drs. Williams, Du-Hadway and Gledhill, of Jerseyville;
Dr. J. A. Flautt, Otterville; Drs. Tid-

Piasa Chautauqua.

Piasa Chautauqua is a summer resort that is well known, and should be better known among the people of the Mississippi Valley. It is fast becoming a pleasure resort for people living within hundreds of miles. Its situation is between two of the magnificent bluffs that line the Mississippi river above Alton, Ill. These bluffs are famous in history as the home of the "Legend of the Piasa," and are noted the world over for the grandeur and beauty of their scenery. Thirteen miles above Alton, on the Illinois side, Piasa Chautauqua lies between two of the highest and most beautiful of them. It is convenient to St. Louis and all stations on the railroads of Central Illinois and Missouri. The steamboats of the Mississippi land excursionists who invariably find it a place of contentment and enjoyment. It is laid off into streets and avenues that are lined with trees and flowers. There are long walks and beautiful grass plots for the benefit of picnic parties. A spring of water so cool and refreshing that it rivals that of the "Old Oaken bucket," is constantly bubbling up from the side of one of the bluffs. This spring has a well known reputation for its purity and excellence. The climate of this resort is everything that could be wished for; not too hot, not too cold, no mosquitoes (contrary to the usual summer resort) nights cool and refreshing, and an atmosphere invigorating, clear and pure. Scenery is never found more beautiful in America. From the bluffs the Missouri and Illinois rivers may be seen. On the Mississippi the boating and bathing opportunities are especially good. All Steamers stop at Piasa Chautauqua where excursionists take their outing. Once a year the Piasa Chautauqua Assembly meets and for one month gives a program of Literature, Science, and Music. This program is made up by the most eminent entertainers obtainable. An auditorium built with splendid acoustic properties affords an opportunity for thousands to see and hear the best lectures, entertainments and musicals that can be inaugurated. The scenery of Piasa Chautauqua is superb, its surroundings grand and stately, its climate all that could be wished for. Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth is Piasa Chautauqua. A haven of beauty and rest.

—The school of temperance instruction meets at 11 a. m. each day. Mrs. Barker is assisted by Miss Helen Hood, of Chicago, and Mrs. E. B. Ingalls, of St. Louis.

—The Normal Bible class meets every morning at 10 o'clock and enrolls 40 members.

—The Misses Creighton and Messrs. Arthur and Wm. Wines are guests at the Pavey cottage.

—This is W. C. T. U. Day. Miss Helen Hood, of Chicago, will deliver an address this evening.

—Maj. Elward seemed more concerned in the "Jew" than in the farmer. His speech was a disappointment.

—T. B. Aydelott and wife, E. R. Simmons and wife, G. A. Gowling and wife, all of Prairie Union Grange, were here on Monday.

—Miss Nellie Maltby, a cousin of Miss Mae Kirby, is a visitor at the Kirby West Villa.

—The Carrollton crowd of young men was increased Saturday evening by Dr. E. S. Gooch, Oscar Mcfarland and Col. Washington Close.

—Mr. Jared Joung, who has been assisting Rev. Dr. Oldham in his Stereopticon Lectures, returned home, Saturday.

—About twenty-five members of Prairie Union Grange were present. They wore badges and brought with them a banner which was hung on the walls.

—Secretary O. E. Hamilton was not present, Monday, owing to some business engagements in Jerseyville.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Squier, of Upper Alton, were among those present on Farmers' Day. Mr. Squier is a retired Calhoun county farmer.

—Though Monday had been designated as Farmers' Day, very few were present. The members of Prairie Union Grange arranged some beautiful and appropriate decorations, consisting of corn, millet, flowers and fruit tastily arranged about the speaker's stand. Prof. Buckingham's black-board sketch had a kindly signification. The address was preceded by some appropriate music. Major Elward, speaker of the day, is not a fluent speaker, and his address, though containing many good things, did not meet expectations. Farmers claim that Monday is a bad day for them to go picnicking.

—As an instructor in Normal Bible Study, Dr. A. P. George has few equals. He has made it a special study for many years and is at present superintendent of the Normal department of the State Sunday School Association of Kansas.
