on Monday night, to rehearse with the band

It seems so good to see Dr. Bulkley among us. He is one of the great thinkers of the day.

We could not but sympathize with those young ladies whose young gentlemen friends left our pretty city yesterday.

Thomas Stanhope, of Godfrey, was up to hear Riddell, Tuesday.

A. H. Hunt and Anna Lowe were here Tuesday.

Flora Cassell, the song writer, is a daughter of Mrs. Hamilton, our well known Chautauquan.

The Corcan Girl's Revenge, by Miss L. Grant, given Monday, was an elocutionary treat.

The census taken Tuesday, shows 1160 persons on the grounds, dwelling in tents and cottages.

We are always made better when we meet such men as our good brother Stokes, who always has a smiling face.

Mr. George Washington Slaten and daughter, Clara, came down Tuesday,
to spend the week.

Leave your laundry at the grocery store on the grounds, for the City Steam Laundry, Jerseyville, Ill.
Finest work, prompt delivery. tf

Ira Nixon is the best walker on the grounds, though not more than ten years old. He walked to Alton Saturday—a distance of perhaps 20 miles.

The Duncan Sisters sang Tuesday afternoon, one of their sacred selections, to which the congregation responded by rising to their feet, en-mass, and giving Chautauqua salute.

Mrs. Van Treese, wife of our superintendent of devotional services, received a letter yesterday, from her son Harry, who is at Santiago. It was two sheets of paper, carefully folded,
addressed and tied with a string.
Harry said he was now anxious to return home. He had been in the thickest of the fight, had seen the Spaniards surrender, and now he is ready to return home.

JERSEYVILLE, ILL., AUGUST 4, 1898.

C. White returned to his duties at Alton, yesterday.

"The giggers are after me," is the latest Chautauqua saying.

Emil Haagen, of Alton, spent Wednesday at Chautauqua.

Miss Margaret Lois Miller, the St.
Louis violinist, will play August 15.

Mrs. Dr. J. S. Williams of Jerseyville, is a frequent visitor at the Chautauqua.

Morton Scott was slightly injured by falling from a wheel Wednesday afternoon.

T. H. Perrin spent yesterday at the Chautauqua, and did not go to St.
Louis as usual.

Mrs. W. T. Spencer and daughter, Miss Hattie, came down from Jerseyville for the season.

Mrs. W. S. Brinton narrowly escaped an explosion, Tuesday evening during the storm. The wind blew so hard against the tent as to overturn the gasoline stove, while, it was burning. Had it not been for her self-possession in turning off the gasoline, more serious damages might have occurred. Don't place your gasoline stove too near the end of your tent.

Our friend, A. P. Brewer, one of the popular Chautauquans, has just returned from St. Louis.

Mrs. Robt. Beatty and daughter, Miss Mamie, are stopping at the Mc-Clure cottage, on Jerseyville Ave.

Miss Mary Allyn of Springfield, came Wednesday to spend the rest of the season, with her cousin, Thomas White.

The report has leaked out that the Dominant Ninth would sing for us later. It is an Alton ladies' organization.

Miss Margaret Lois Miller, whom we spoke of yesterday, is not an ordinary musician. She is one of the best violinists from St. Louis.

Rev. S. E. Turner and family of Godfrey, came Wednesday to spend a week enjoying the good things of Chautauqua.

A large number of persons purchased tickets at the gate yesterday.
There is every indication of a largely increased attendance as the season advances.

The following persons were registered at the Chautauqua Hotel Tuesday: Rev. R. G. Hobbs, Mrs. R. G.
Hobbs, S. G. Akers, Springfield; Miss
Lou Bowles, R. W. Greene, Samuel
Hood, H. L. McCain, L. Hallock, St.
Louis.

General Pavy, with his excellent family, are on the ground for the remainder of the season. The General is one of the strong friends and supporters of Piasa Chautauqua, and none are more welcome or more deserved popular, than the Pavy family.

LEON ENGEL,

The Clothier, Hatter and Shoer, - - - - - JERSEYVILLE, ILLINOIS.

Prof. Riddell is making the people think as they never thought before.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Darrow, of O'Fallon, came up Wednesday, to stay the remainder of the week.

The storm is over, the clouds have disappeared and the sun is shining to the delight of every Chautauquan.

Prof. Riddell's lecture Wednesday afternoon, was well attended and listened to with the closest attention for two hours. Instead of discussing the theme announced, his lecture was upon "The Blunders of Life as Seen by the Humorist." In our humble judgement, the theme would have been better stated if it had been as follows: "The blunders of life as seen by the philosopher." We make this statement for the reason that the whole lecture was full of the most profound social philosophy. The Professor took up his subject under three general heads, viz.: (1) Individual, (2) Social, (3) National. He elaborated these points by numerous illustrations. The lecture was one of the best which we have had so far in the course. To follow out the suggestions of the lecture, would be to transform the whole fabric of human society. The lecture as a whole, was a vivid and beautiful presentation of the highest type of socialism. No congregation can listen to such an array of truth, beautifully and poetically put, without being entertained and greatly benefited.
