Knoll & McNeil played beautifully again Monday and continue to draw crowds. They have about decided to remain until Wednesday, and this is good news to the lovers of music. They are very popular here.

A party from St Louis, consisting of Misses C. B. and M. E. Kennedy, and Messrs. Geo. Miller and Walter Bond, came up on Saturday for a few days outing. The Misses Kennedy will remain the rest of the season.

Among the late arrivals at the Hotel, are the following: Allen Newlin of Upper Alton; Isaac Spacht of Jerseyville; D. M. Browning and wife, of East St. Louis; H. Froman Smith, Fred Hamilton and Marmaduke Fox, of Jerseyville.

The following members of the Ransom Guards, of Clifton Heights, came up to spend Sunday: Capt. Ross Hallock, Lieut. R. B. Burlingame, Sergt. G. W. Wolfrey, 2nd Sergt. M. S. Kovigsky. Privates, L. Perry, R. A. Cottan, A. Heermans, J. W. Sells, G. B. Kerth, L. Rhoads, W. E. Yerkes, P. C. Balts, G. G. Card, S. A. Wier, C. Miller, G. G. Stanley, J. G. Kinder, S. B. McVey, G. A. Rhoads, R. Ralston and H. Burlingame.

Messrs. White and Wrigley left with their exhibit Monday. Mr. Wrigley, representing Libby & McNeil, was in charge of the fine exhibit of canned meats, beef extracts, etc. Mr. White, representing Armour & Swift's wonderful and instructive exhibit of the many and marvelous things, made from the horns, hoofs, hide and hair of the steer. The gentlemen certainly understand the art of exhibiting these goods, and have made many friends while here.

Dr. Eaton started out Monday, by saying: The claim that I make is that the Bible is of Divine origin. I will try to make it plain. I quote some of the ancient opinions. Damocrates, he thought the substance of the soul was fire Pythagoras the same. Suppose a mass of iron liberated from a great height, the heavier would fall more rapidly. Gallileo differed and proved a different truth later. This lecture was replete with scientific and religious truths, and was indeed an intellectual treat.

A large audience listened to a splendid concert on Saturday night, assisted by Knoll and McNeil, the distinguished cornet soloists. It was a pleasant evening, and there were many visitors here from abroad. H. Clay White, a late graduate of the Alton Conservatory of Music, was one of the soloists. Robert Scotton Johnson, the boy sopranoist, and Stella Launtz, of East St. Louis, elocutionist, with a splendid number from the popular pianist, Prof. Eisenberg. Everybody was pleased. They went away happy.

Don't forget your subscription. If it is unpaid, an early remittance will be very acceptable.

Rev. Wm. Carson was called home Tuesday by telegram, on account of a death in one of the families of his church.

Barnett Wyllie, who was too late to fill his place on the programme Monday night, arrived Tuesday Morning, and will disburse to us some of his sweet music.

Sam Jones is the only man who can hit you hard and often, and at the same time make you like it, and open your mouth and ears for more.

Miss Marie McNeil said: "Oh I hate to go away." Mrs. VanCleve of East St. Louis, said: "Oh I wish I did not have to go home." The above expresses very largely the feeling of those who are necessitated to leave Chautauqua.

Money to Loan.

Having made arrangements with a St. Louis house to loan money for it on farm lands in this county, I am now prepared to make loans in sums of $500, and upwards, on Jersey County farm lands, at very reasonable rates.

—The Baptist Church selected the delegates to the association to meet in Kane this week.

—Rev. Ballhorn left last Thursday for his new pastorate near New York City. During his ministry here, he has done a work that stands as a monument to his energetic spirit, marking his desire for the up building of the cause he ministered to. The congregation was widely scattered, and disunited in purpose. Those gathered to gather worshipped in a small house too crowded for the growth of the church. He found a small gift of $500 bequeath by Mr. Villinger, which he had transferred to a fund for a church building. Working with arduous zeal he sought out the people of his faith, who subscribed liberally, and in due time a handsome edifice was completed. In this work he was sustained by his wife, a true helpmate and an inspiration that lifted him above the besetting traps along his pathway. Some weeks before his departure, Mrs. Ballhorn was called home on a visit to Germany. He missed her as only a man can, who idolizes his wife, and daily he mourned her absence as if he should never see her again. We trust a better work, even, awaits him.

—The Chicago & Alton has made several important changes in their time table: No. 41, Kansas City Mail, north, arrives here at 9:25, instead of 9:55 a. m.; No. 43, Kansas City Express reaches here at 10:30 instead of 10:15 p. m.; No. 42, Kansas City Mail, south, is due here at 4:50 instead of 5:52 p. m.; and No. 40, Jacksonville and St. Louis Accommodation, south, leaves here at 8:47 a. m. The time of the other trains and local freights has also been changed, but the most important have been noted above.

—In response to an invitation, a number of young people gathered at the home of Miss Josie Kingston on Friday evening. The party had been given complimentary to her cousin, Mr. Wm. Lemen, of St. Louis, who has been spending a short vacation at the Kingston home. The lawn had been illuminated with pretty Chinese lanterns and as the guests arrived they were invited to comfortable seats under the overhanging boughs of the trees. After a pleasant hour of conversation the company repaired to the house where music and social games were served to occupy their attention. As the evening was fast speeding away and the hour of departure drawing near, a change in the program was made by the serving of delicious refreshments. Shortly after the guests departed for their homes, thanking Miss Josie for the very pleasant evening they had enjoyed. Those present were, Misses Nellie, Elizabeth, and Hattie Catt, Minnie DuHadway, Ella and Hattie Randolph, Josie and Lottie Kingston, Messrs. Wm. Lemen, Ewd. Ross, G. L. Darrow, Ed Jacoby and George Beatty.

—Twenty horses were sold last Saturday, from the Exchange Street Livery Stable. The stock came from the surrounding territory and is the resulting cause of the weekly auction inaugurated last winter, designed to aid trade as well as to fill a need. It has been the custom for decades back, to bring trading stock in town on Saturdays, which drew many from the surrounding country and has had an effect on trade. We trust the sales may continue. Good prices prevailed under the skillful management of Wharton English.

—Four persons who reside in the northeast part of town, lie at the point of death with no hope of recovery within the knowledge of materia-medica. They are Mrs. Oscar Clark, Mrs. Ballard, Wm. Bennett and Frank Miller. These four live within two blocks of each other.

—Charles Tack, of St. Louis, visited with home folks Saturday and Sunday.

—Mr. George James, of Plasa, transacted business here Monday, and made this office a pleasant call. He expects to attend the Grand Army Encampment at Cincinnati Sept. 5th, and has already made arrangements for accommodations for a party of five who are going from Plasa.

—Misses Enid and Bessie Gard came up from St. Louis to Chautauqua, Saturday evening where they were met by a small company from Jerseyville and Kane. After an hour's stroll over the grounds they took the train for Jerseyville where they were entertained over Sunday by their aunt, Mrs. H.
A. Tunehorst.

—The Drummond Tobacco Co., as an inducement to use their brand of tobacco and as an advertisement, offer a valuable bicycle for 2500 metal tag horseshoes taken from their tobacco. Orville Catt decided he wanted one of those wheels and has labored industriously for some weeks collecting tags, even visiting neighboring towns. His patience and perseverance were rewarded, and on Monday he sent in the required number, and will have his wheel in a few days.
