"Rest Cottage," Piasa Chautauqua.

The King's Daughters have reserved as in former years two rooms for the use of the guests they entertain, leaving four to rent, of these two can still be engaged either by the week or for the season. Board can also be obtained for a limited number. Parties desiring either, can address Mrs. Gillham. King's Daughters' Cottage, Chautauqua, Illinois.

Any donations to the cottage will prove most acceptable, as their work is wholly of a charitable nature. To enlarge their grounds, they last year purchased the adjoining lot, and they are most anxious to finish paying for the same this year.

Piasa Chautauqua.

The outlook is excellent for a large attendance. Several new cottages have been erected, and others are in course of erection, by J. K. McDavid of Hillsboro, and Mr. Fischer of Shipman.

Miss Jennie Hays has been making improvements on her beautiful cottage, and Rev. J. L. Bulkley, D. D., and wife, have taken rooms with her for the season.

Mr. Matlock has made additions to his cottage, and Mrs. Roades has built a nice porch to her large cottage, on St. Louis Avenue. O. B. Hamilton and wife have rooms with her.

W. Lynch has a tent on J. K. Cadwallader's lot, on St. Louis Avenue.

Rev. Dr. Scarrett's family are located in their cottage for the season. Col. Rodgers and his force cannot keep up with their orders for tents.

Dr. O. M. Stewart, Dr. A. P. George, T. H. Perrin, J. B. Ulrich, A. W. Cross and O. B. Hamilton are on hand for the season, as usual.

Mrs. R. B. Cooley of Jerseyville, arrived Thursday and has taken charge of the W. R. C. cottage.

Mrs. Ella Rue and Miss Eva Coulthard inspected the Relief Corps cottage Wednesday, and made preparations for opening day.

Misses Marion English, Cornelia Newton, of Jerseyville, Minnie White, of Kane, and Lottie Dodge, of Kemper, will arrive Friday and occupy the J. N. English tent near the tabernacle.

Director C. P. Stafford had a good excuse for not being present at the meeting of the executive committee, Wednesday. Mr. Stafford is extensively engaged in merchandising at Grafton, and orders for new contract work called for 150 additional men in the stone quarries at that place, which Mr. Stafford assisted in supplying. This will be a material aid to the citizens and business men of that village, and bring prosperity to many a man and his family.

JERSEYVILLE, ILL., JULY 22, 1898.

Rooms are at a premium now.

Mrs. Lemon, daughter and son are here from Alton.

Dr. J. F. Corrington and wife are here from St. Louis.

An air of enthusiasm is everywhere manifest.

Mrs. Geo. E. Raithel and son are at the "white house."

Banker Teitsort and Howard C. Bliss represented Medora yesterday.

William Talley and his brother, Grubb Talley from Shipman, were here yesterday.

G. W. Stewart, Victor Stewart and Warren Jeffers, are registered at Chautauqua Hotel.

William Reynolds, wife and mother, Mrs. Smith, are stopping at the King's Daughters' cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Long, of St. Louis, arrived Thursday morning, and are stopping at Miss Hayes' cottage on Springfield Ave.

The Chautauqua grounds presented a most beautiful aspect yesterday, as everywhere tents are being pitched, cottages put to rights, and the vexing tangle of household goods straightened out.

Mrs. John Parkman Woods and her beautiful daughter are at the "white house." Mr. Woods comes up occasionally during the week to surprise them.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kupferle and daughters, Estelle and Mildred, have been here for a month or more. Mr. Kupferle left Thursday morning, but will return Saturday evening, staying four days each week.

The pavillion is most beautifully decorated with the National colors and Cuban flags. A beautiful picture of the Maine, the handi-work of Prof. Buckingham, graces the wall on the right of the speaker's stand, while a good picture of President McKinley illumines the left. Immediately over the center are to be seen the cabalistic letters U. S. in exquisite hunting, guarded by angels. New paint, and water regeneration, make a most inviting place for spiritual and intellectual refreshment.

Jerseyville.

—A. O. Auten came down Thursday to look after business matters.

—Mrs. James Sunderland will go to Chautauqua for an outing of several days.

—Mrs. Otto Johnson of Carlinville, well known in this city, is the mother of a boy baby.

—Misses Jennie and Katie Pogue, of Edwardsville, are visiting Mrs. H. W. Pogue.

—Mrs. Isaac Maupin will take a vacation for a few days visiting friends in the southwest part of the county.

—Mrs. Menerva Chappell and son Richard, are among the many who went to Chautauqua Thursday to remain indefinitely.

—Rev. G. W. Shepherd and family departed for Chautauqua, Thursday morning, to remain during the entire season. They will occupy the Bohannon cottage.

—Mrs. Compton died at her home near Delhi, Wednesday. Funeral services were held on Thursday following. It will be remembered that her husband met death by an accident some years ago, and at the time was a member of the county board of supervisors.

—The thieves who broke into Giers & Newberry's millinery store on Tuesday night and took $200 worth of goods, have not yet been apprehended. Some of the goods were found in an outhouse at the Presbyterian parsonage, and it might be well to add, that no suspicion leads to Rev. Kearns and family, as they have been away from home more than a week.

—Chas. W. Holnback of Rockbridge, was here Wednesday, advertising a union Sunday school picnic, to be held in the grove at that place, Aug. 4th. Mr. Holnback expects every Sunday school in Greene county and many from adjoining counties present. Each school will be given 15 minutes on the program for any exercises that may have been prepared. He expects about 8,000 people present and is very desirous that the schools from Jerseyville, his former home, will be represented. The C. B. & Q. will run an excursion train, connecting with the Bluff Line at Medora. Round trip from Medora, 25 cents.

Drowned in the River.

"Harry Utt was drowned at Nevlin's Ferry," was the message, Dr. Enos received over the Telephone yesterday evening. He was one of a party of four on the river fishing. The body has not been recovered as this issue goes to press.

Killed a Rattlesnake.

John P. Welsh, living seven miles southwest of town, killed a rattlesnake Wednesday on his farm, that measuring some four feet in length, and had thirteen rattles. His snake-ship had just swallowed a chicken, or, somewhat else that distended his proportion to several times its natural size.

Off for Chautauqua.

Among the passengers who took the Bluff Line train Thursday morning for Chautauqua, we noticed the following: Judge O. B. Hamilton, (who spent the waiting moments at the depot by perusing the Chautauquan,) Mrs. E. N. McClure, accompanied by Miss Mabel Herdman of Le Roy, Kansas; Mrs. Chappell, accompanied by several friends; Mrs. M. B. Trabue, and Mrs. Doug Leach, Ewd. Trabue, Mrs. Mary A. Cooley, who will assist Mrs. Sarah Squier in charge of the Relief Corps cottage. Mrs. Squier was not present, but was expected to be on the Assembly grounds some time during the day, having been absent attending to business affairs on farm in Calhoun county.

Harry Colean attended his mother and daughter. Mrs. George Burriss and Mrs. Howard Nelson joined each other in the trip.

Miss Maud Updike, Miss Pearl Noble, Miss Hattie Erwin and Elmer Erwin; Judge Slaten, who was busy shaking hands with every one in his genial way; Wilson Cross and family; Isaac Spacht; Albert Newton, who with Perry Lurton, has surveying to do on the grounds.

Dick Chappell went to the Assembly in a rig, to convey the commissary for the household.

R. N. McClure took down the necessary utensils required in the camp, by wagon.
