 Indicates the cottages may be rented. See Manager or owners of cottages.

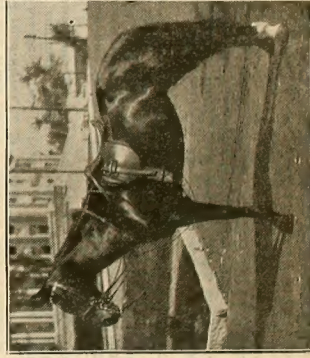

Mrs. Clarence H. Chamberlin will hold her sewing Club at Grand View Cottage Chautauqua every Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 4 P. M., after July 1st. All the girls between the ages of seven and twelve will be welcome. This splendid teacher had twenty-two in her class last year, prizes were given. The class did wonderful work.

RULES FOR CHAUTAUQUA DURING 1922. PIN THIS IN A CONSPICUOUS PLACE.

1. Cottage rents MUST be paid in advance at the office.
2. No joy riding over the Chautauqua grounds.
3. Wear covering over bathing suits throughout the ground.
4. Throw paper in the barrels. It helps sanitation.
5. No fowls allowed to run loose.
6. Garbage must be kept in pails. This is important.
7. No athletics during Sunday forenoon.
8. Be sure to use sanitary precautions in toilet rooms.
9. Laundry must be taken in before one o'clock p. m.
10. Persons renting cottages will be held responsible for damage done to cottage or furniture.
11. No smoking in the main auditorium.
12. Children must not play around the spring.
13. No flowers must be taken from the Chautauqua ground.
14. Ferns must not be gathered without permission from the Manager or Custodian.
15. Cutting or carving on buildings or benches is strictly forbidden.
16. No agents allowed to peddle their wares without permission.
17. No fireworks allowed inside the grounds.
18. Do not kill the birds. We have a bird club now.
19. Horses must not be tied to the trees on the Chautauqua ground.
20. No firearms allowed in or near the ground during the assembly season. This carries a penalty with it.
21. Complaints concerning water pipes, scarcity of water, or defective gasoline stoves must be made to the manager.
22. Carry your day and week tickets constantly. Leave season tickets at the gate.
23. Do your part to help us keep Chautauqua clean.
24. Keep the dogs chained or muzzled from July 1st to August 31st. This is imperative. It protects the children.
25. Register your name at headquarters.
26. Two public telephones are installed in the office for your use. Use them as often as may be necessary, but don't talk too long as others may be waiting.

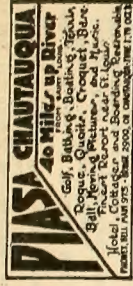

INTERESTING SPOTS NEAR CHAUTAUQUA.

"Thomas Morfit of Alton, Illinois, has the concession this year for saddle horses. Mr. Morfit is known for his high class riding horses and has for years been furnishing the young ladies of the Monticello Seminary and the cadets of the Western Military Academy their horses. He takes great pride in this part of his business and assures patrons of Chautauqua many happy hours when using his horses. The price will be reasonable."
